

V i C A P A L E R T
UNSOLVED HOMICIDE – SEEKING INFORMATION

Attention: Violent Crime / Cold Case / Crime Analysis Units

Agency Case #: 00361-1987-CID967-053388

On 09/27/1987, Tracy McMath, a 20-year-old military dependent spouse, was reported missing by a friend. A welfare check was conducted at McMath's apartment in Mannheim, Germany, wherein she was found deceased in the bathtub. At the time of her death, McMath was pregnant. McMath's ATM card was stolen and used to withdraw $600 in Kaiserslautern and Heidelberg. Investigators are attempting to identify anyone who has information on the homicide. If you have any information, please contact the Department of the Army Criminal Investigation Division.

To provide or request additional information, please contact:

- Special Agent Jessica Veltri, Department of the Army Criminal Investigation Division, VA, (571) 733-6881, jessica.a.veltri.civ@army.mil -
- FBI ViCAP, (800) 634-4097, vicap@fbi.gov -